

From Alaska Life magazine – March 1945

Hostesses striving for the veddy, veddy smart dinner party may arrange it at the luxuriously-appointed Idle Hour on Lake Spenard. With its orchestra, the place is popular, too, with late-hour celebrants.

From William Tewkesbury's Guide to Alaska – 1950

Welcome to the

IDLE HOUR Country Club

"Alaska's Finest"

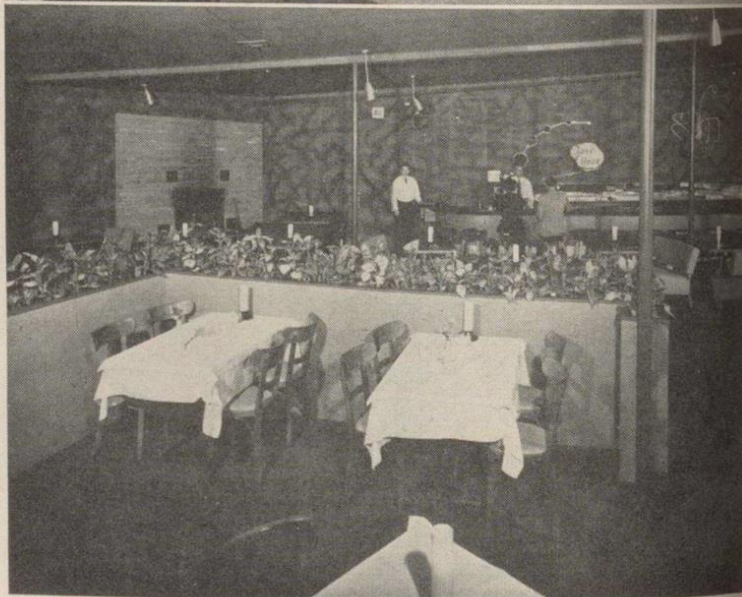

THREE MILES SOUTH OF ANCHORAGE, ON BEAUTIFUL LAKE SPENARD

●
SEATING CAPACITY
OVER 400

●
The Best of Food and Cocktails

●
Smorgasbord
Every Tuesday Evening

●
Tarrazo Dance Floor (top photo)
Only One of Its Kind in Alaska

YOU WILL LIKE THE "CLASS" AT THE IDLE HOUR AND WILL COME AGAIN AND AGAIN

From Lou Jacobin's Guide to Alaska – 1953

Idle Hour Country Club

CONTINUOUS ENTERTAINMENT

"Most Fabulous Night Club North of Las Vegas"

Charcoal Broiled Steaks
Seafood ☆ Chicken

On International Airport Road on the Shores of Beautiful Lake Spenard

From What's Doing in Anchorage - 1955